Retail Security – Solutions for Trading

Whatever the nature of your retail business, Sight & Sound Security can provide a perfect security solution for you. This may involve the use of retail security officers, plain-clothes store detectives, CCTV, alarm response and key holding. As well as providing retail security we can also assist with inventory control and stock monitoring.

We are able to cater for the needs of most types of retail operation in any location, from major national DIY/supermarket chains to high street retailers, based in public malls, town centres or out of town shopping centres.

THE EYES & EARS OF YOUR BUSINESS SECURITY

Retail Security – Solutions for Trading

Sight & Sound have vast experience in all aspects of retail security. All our retail security staff are individually selected and trained to fulfil specific roles in specific types of retail outlets. These roles range from managing everyday incidents to dealing with more sensitive issues, such as guidance of lost children and cases of theft or violent behaviour.

The training we provide is bespoke, and includes both SITO and client specific curricula, with many courses leading to NVQ security qualifications. In addition we provide bespoke assignment handbooks, containing detailed instructions and procedures relating to their security solution.

Customer care is a very important part of our staff training. We recognise that our personnel can help to make shopping a pleasurable experience for your customers. You will find our team friendly, courteous and helpful to work with.
